Orientações para a entrevista (em inglês), de duração aproximada de 20-25min:

*During your upcoming interview for the Wakará Project selection process, you are expected to articulate a compelling argument demonstrating how your academic background, interpersonal skills, and personal goals directly align with your chosen vacancy, while explicitly showcasing your genuine eagerness, high motivation, and reliable availability to actively engage in this extension initiative. Furthermore, you will be required to comprehensively describe how you would plan, structure, and conduct a practical classroom activity tailored specifically for local Amazonian tourism workers — such as tour guides, boat operators, or artisans — by drawing direct inspiration from the attached pedagogical examples (Ver Anexo), employing communicative approaches or text genre frameworks, and illustrating your capacity to deliver effective didactic transposition that addresses real-world local linguistic demands. Please remember to consider the online context and the tools available within the Zoom platform..
